Madam:

Please enter the following comments concerning this case. It is agreed that the pending claims are allowable, for at least the reasons identified by the Examiner in his Statement of Reasons for Allowance. However, Applicants do not concede that those reasons are the only reasons or the broadest or most applicable bases for allowing these claims. Applicants reserve the right to assert additional bases for allowance, including those given in prior filings with the PTO in this case, as may be appropriate. No limitation of the claims should be inferred from the Examiner's Statement, and the Applicant's intend for the allowed claims to have the full scope to which their language entitles them, including equivalents.
